CORRECTION.

Several errors having occurred in the following article in our paper of last week we republish it corrected.

The first list of Hogs packed from Alton, at the commencement of the season, was a small drove from Greene county, received at the Packing House of Messrs. Townsend & Co., put up and shipped a few days since per Missouri Falcon for Orleans. The following statement of the numbers packed, will we think, equal the best generals of Commercial note. Greene county is certainly due to the growers, Messrs. Eldred & Woodman. We doubt much if a like number of hogs can be found (151) together in the State, that will produce so much; and question if an equal drove will again be made during the season, in our place:

DECISIVE BATTLE WITH THE LOYALISTS DEFEATED AND DISPERSED.

Intelligence from Canada has been left behind two days later, received in the northern stage this morning, which announces the complete defeat of the governing interest, the patriots and loyalists of Upper Canada having met on Monday last, at Montgomery's, on the borders of Toronto, and the Queen's troops having been completely routed, with the loss of their leader, Sir Francis Bond Head, and the whole of his staff, who were obliged to fly for their lives. The battle was fought on Monday, and the fugitives arrived at Toronto on the following day. The Lieutenant Governor, with his staff, and the troops, left Toronto on Monday morning, and encamped at Montgomery's, about five miles from the city, on the road to Yonge Street, where the patriots had taken up a position. The battle commenced about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and lasted about two hours, when the Queen's troops were completely routed, and fled in the greatest confusion to the woods, with the loss of their artillery, baggage, &c.

Sir Francis Bond Head, with his staff, arrived at Toronto on Monday evening, and immediately left for Niagara, where he arrived on Tuesday morning, and crossed over to Lewiston, in the State of New York, where he was received with the greatest enthusiasm by the citizens, who had assembled in great numbers to welcome him. He was escorted to the hotel by a numerous body of citizens, and a public dinner was given to him in the evening.

The patriots, after the defeat of the Queen's troops, marched into Toronto, and took possession of the city, and the Lieutenant Governor's house, which they plundered and burnt to the ground. They also burnt the Parliament House, and the Government Offices, and the Bank of Upper Canada, and the Medical College. The Lieutenant Governor's house was a splendid building, and was fitted up in the most costly manner. The patriots have also taken possession of the Government stores, and the Queen's troops have retired to Kingston.

The following is a list of the killed and wounded in the battle:

VANDALIA, Dec. 4, 1837.

To the President of the Democratic Convention to be held at Vandalia on the 21st of November, 1837, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of Governor and Lieut. Governor.

SIR—Presuming that my name will be presented to the Convention to be held in Vandalia on the 21st inst. for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of Governor and Lieut. Governor,

Mr. McClernand, from the Committee appointed to prepare resolutions, &c. reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, viz:

Resolved, As Democrats we repudiate an expression upon our integrity, a charge made against us by the Federalists, that we are opposed to the justly acquired rights of individuals or communities, that our principles are destructive in their tendency, or that we are in anywise opposed to a fair and honest credit system, and we affirm that we are the friends of order and justice, lovers of equal privileges, now, as always, contending for the rights of the many against the unjust aggressions of the few.

Resolved, That the Democratic principle is founded on an unperishable basis of virtue and justice, and is perpetually striving to secure society in the exercise of every power which can promote human happiness, and to secure to individuals, the utmost of warrant against undue, and encroaching power, and we therefore hail the progress of democracy as the most precious principle of our political faith.

Resolved, That we recognize no power but that which yields to the restrictions of duty, and is guided by reason, and we therefore look to obtain indulgence by means of free and fair discussion, and by appeals to brute force, and the exercise of every power, but reason, and the sense of public opinion are treason and truth.

Resolved, That our first aim is to connect our party with the cause of intelligence and morality; to seek the protection of the laws, and to secure with the genius of our institutions and the spirit of the age, a free, liberal, and sound education, and to remove as far as possible all obstacles which may interpose to the enlightening all improvements which can minister our moral and political aims.

Resolved, That the more we have before the people, is the establishment of the Democratic faith, as the true principle of the Government from all banks, it therefore follows that the Democracy become known as unanimous, unitarily hostile to every description of banks, and we do unanimously repudiated by them, and the return to the old and precise doctrines of the Democratic party of Jefferson.

Resolved, That we oppose all discriminations in favor of banks, or any other banks, claiming for the right to control the amount of circulation, and the regulation of exchanges at their own choice, and leaving the banks of the Democratic faith, one of the privileges granted them by laws, and thereby engaging upon their rights, nor permitting them to be violated by any discriminations or attempts to encroach upon the liberties of the people.

Resolved, That while modern whiggery and Murray McConnell was appointed Presiis the offspring of Federalism, and is based upon the principles of that party, it is also the legal classes, seeking to patronize the few at the expense of the many, and espousing by conclusion all those principles which the improvement of the masses of society, the diffusion of knowledge, and the spread of all political distinctions, and to establish upon the ruins of the democratic party, a high and aristocratic government, we therefore call upon the people to rally around the standard of the Democratic party, as the only true friend of the people, and the preservers of their rights, nor permitting themselves to be entrapped by the artful contrivances to encroach upon the liberties of the people.

Resolved, That while modern whiggery Ebenezer Peck and Samuel Rochelton and E. F. Sweetzer, Secretaries.
